

Talk Like a Pirate Day: Terms and Conditions

In confirming my registration (participant) for Talk Like a Pirate Day (campaign), I acknowledge that I understand the activities and risks involved in participating. Certain risks or dangers may occur which may include, amongst others: bodily or psychological injury, defect, failure, or inadequacy of equipment associated with activities including weather conditions and environmental dangers and the possibility of accident or illness requiring the assistance of medical and rescue services which may not be readily available.

I acknowledge and agree, in consideration of permission to participate in the activities, to release and indemnify the Childhood Cancer Support (organiser), its officers, employees and volunteers and all sponsors (be they individuals or organisations, singularly or collectively) from and against all liabilities, claims, damages, suits, expenses, causes of action, injuries, losses or inconvenience of any description whatsoever arising in any way from my participation in the activities.

I agree to ensure that any fundraising I undertake for Talk Like a Pirate Day will follow the Childhood Cancer Supports Fundraising Guidelines and will comply with any relevant federal, state, or local legislation in addition to local government health and safety guidelines. Childhood Cancer Support reserves the right to withdraw your authority to fund raise at any time if your fundraising activities could harm the image or reputation of Childhood Cancer Support. If you wish to conduct additional fundraising activities other than receiving donations through the personal fundraising page provided, please contact us to arrange an authority to fund raise letter to cover your full fundraising activity.

I confirm that I am over the age of eighteen (18) years, or, if I am under the age of eighteen (18) years I have obtained permission to participate from my parent or guardian.

I also give permission for the free use by Childhood Cancer Support of my name, image and voice in any broadcast, or any other account on social media promoting Talk Like a Pirate Day.

We will use your personal information for the purposes of the Event (including communicating with you and sending you information about the Event through various platforms including email, SMS, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, and other social media platforms), re-marketing to you after the Event, for other purposes as the law permits. You can unsubscribe or modify your preferences for how and when you are contacted at any time via the respective platform or by contacting Childhood Cancer Support.
